LOCAL AND PERSONAL

BALLOTS READY.

For the 17th consecutive time, the present management of this paper has week delivered to the county authorities the ballots for the general election, the election to be held on Tuesday, November 8, 1938.

Elsewhere in this paper will be found a sample of the ballot. It is a reproduction of the ballot as it will be used over the entire county, except if you live in a precinct other than number one, the precinct arrangement for Commissioner, Public Weigher, Justice of the Peace and Constable will be different, to conform to the situation in each precinct.

It will be observed that the ballot is shorter than usual, and, accordingly, proportionately simpler. There are few contests to confuse the voter. Only two county offices are contested, and one of these calls for the closest attention of all. In the race for County Attorney, one candidate's name is in the Democratic column and one in the Independent. This will have to be watched or you may leave both names unscratched and your vote will not count for either. Don't lose your vote in this race through such an oversight.

In the contest for Sheriff, the only other county race in which there is a contest, both names appear in the Independent column, one directly underneath the other. One or the other of these must be scratched or they both lose a vote.

Only in the Castroville and the D'Hanis Commissioner Precincts are there contests for Commissioner. The Devine and Hondo Commissioners have no opposition, but in Hondo Commissioner precinct there is a contest over who shall be Public Weigher.

Hondo Justice precinct No. 1 has a contest over the constable's office. The proposed Amendment at the bottom of the ballot should not be overlooked by the voter.

Save this issue of the paper, study the sample ballot contained therein and explain it to those seeking information as to how to prepare it. The ballot will probably not be printed again.

A MIDNIGHT BLAZE

Early sleepers were aroused from their midnight slumbers Sunday night by the sound of the fire siren. The Volunteer Fire Company rushed to the scene and found a stack of baled hay at the Albert Mummie place, about one mile west of town, on fire. The fire hose was attached to the available water supply and rapid progress was being made in extinguishing the flames when the water gave out. As it was, the flames were kept from spreading to other exposed property, but Mr. Mummie lost about three tons of baled Johnson grass and sorghum hay.

The origin of the fire is unknown and there was no insurance. While feeling his loss, Mr. Mummie is happy that it is no worse, and is deeply grateful to the fire boys and all others who assisted in preventing the spread of the flames.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

Mrs. W. H. Smith, assisted by Mrs. J. R. Chaney, was hostess to the Woman's Missionary Society on Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Smith. Eighteen members enjoyed their hospitality.

Miss Willie Fly as leader made the program very interesting. Mrs. O. A. Fly, Mrs. S. O. Woods, Mrs. J. A. Horger and Miss Bertha Newton assisted her. This was dollar day for the W. M. S. and after the program twenty-seven dollars were collected.

The hostesses served delicious refreshments consisting of cake and ice cream, and a very pleasant social hour was spent.

Owls Get First Victory of the Season

By a Win of Twenty-One to Nothing Over Burbank

From THE OWL

The Hondo High Owls copped their first victory of the season last Friday night as they defeated the Burbank Bulldogs of San Antonio. The entire team showed much improvement over the previous games and everyone was out hustling and fighting hard. Blocking was much better in this game as well as the fine playing of the boys on the defense.

As the game began Bader got off a bad kick, which is unusual for him, and the Bulldogs received the ball on their own 46 yard line. The Bulldogs failed to do anything with their four downs and on the last one Rohmer kicked to the Hondo 20 yard line. On the first down Finger went around left to Hondo's 25 and then around right end on the next play, taking the ball to Hondo's 40 yard line for a first down. Finger then went off left tackle, advancing to Hondo's 48 yard line. On the next play Grell passed but the ball was intercepted by one of the Burbank boys who was downed on Burbank's 44 yard line.

With Burbank in possession of the ball Rohmer advanced it to the Hondo 46 yard line in three downs for a first down. The Bulldogs' first two plays were no play and on the third down a pass was attempted but the ball was fumbled and then recovered by Hondo. Hondo advanced the ball to the 50 yard line in two plays and on the third down Finger ran around right end to the Burbank 37 yard line for a first down. Leinweber then took the ball over left tackle to Burbank's 31 yard line, and on the next down Kollman smashed off center to the Bulldogs' 18 yard line for another first down. Finger took the ball on the first down to Burbank's 15 yard line where he was stopped by Dawson. Kollman went thru center for an additional 5 yards and on the next two plays he again smashed thru center, the last down finding the ball on Burbank's 8 yard line with a first down and goal to go. Finger next smashed off left guard to the 4 yard line; the second down brought no yardage and on the third down Kollman ploughed off right guard for a touchdown. Bader converted for the extra point, making the score 7-0, in favor of the Hondo Owls. Bader back to kick off for the Owls, this time sending the ball to the Burbank 20 yard line, where Rohmer returned it to the 35. On the last play of the first quarter Dawson went thru center to the Burbank 39 yard line.

Going into the second quarter with the ball in possession of the Bulldogs, 2nd down and six yards to go for 1st down, a play was broken up by Moehring and Jennings. On the next down Stroman faked thru center to Burbank's 41 yard line. Dorgan then kicked to Hondo's 23 yard line. Leinweber advanced the ball in two downs to Hondo's 32 yard line and on the third down Kollman smashed off guard to Hondo's 37 yard line for a first down. Leinweber then went off right tackle to Hondo's 46 yard line and then Kollman took the ball to Burbank's 49 for another first down. The next four downs brought up another first down for the Owls with the ball on the Burbank 37 yard line. The next four downs brought the ball to the Burbank 26 yard line for another first down. Leinweber went around left end for 6 yards and then Finger went off right tackle to the Burbank 13 yard line. Finger went thru center to Burbank's 6 yard line, then Leinweber smashed off right tackle to the 1 yard line, Kollman going thru center on the last down for a touchdown. Bader converted for the extra point, making the score stand 14-0 in favor of the Owls. G. H. Finger kicked off for the Owls, sending the ball to the Burbank 15 yard line where Gutierrez received it, running it back to the 24 yard line where he was stopped by Richter and Finger. Burbank tried two plays thru center that failed to click and this brought to a close the first half of the game with Hondo 14, Burbank 0.

Back on the field for the second half Burbank kicked to Chas. Finger on Hondo's 12 yard line, Finger returning the ball to Hondo's 46 yard line. On the first play Finger went around right end to Burbank's 31 yard line, where he was finally stopped by Dawson, for another first down. Finger next went off left tackle, taking the ball to Burbank's 24 yard line. Leinweber took the pigskin off left tackle back to the Burbank 24 yard line. Kollman then went thru center to the 20 yard line for a first down. Finger then took the ball off right tackle to the 10 yard line for another first down. A five yard penalty for the Hondo squad put the ball back on the 15 yard line on three plays the ball was advanced to the 10 yard line. On the last down Bader attempted a field goal, but it was no good, the ball going over to the Bulldogs on their own 20 yard line. A pass was attempted but was incomplete. Rohmer then punted to the Burbank 45 yard line. Finger tried off tackle but was stopped by Biekle. Grell went thru center to Burbank's 31 yard line for a first down. Hondo received a 15 yard penalty, putting the ball on Burbank's 46 yard line. Finger took the ball back to the 37 yard line, then Grell passed to Finger, who took the ball to Burbank's 19 yard line for another first down. Four more plays took the ball to Burbank's 9 yard line for another first down. In two plays Finger had advanced the ball to Burbank's 4 yard line. This marked the end of the third quarter.

Going into the final quarter with Hondo in possession of the ball on Burbank's 4 yard line, third down and goal to go. On the third down Finger smashed off right tackle for a touchdown. Bader again converted for the extra point. Bader kicked off for Hondo, sending the ball to the Burbank 15 yard line, Dawson returning it to Burbank's 30. With three plays Burbank advanced the ball to their own 49 yard line. Bader stopped the next two plays and on the third down Rohmer attempted to pass but fumbled, the ball going to the Hondo squad on the Burbank 49 yard line. Grell threw a lateral to Finger who ran the ball down the field to Burbank's 18 yard line for a first down. With three more plays the Owls received another first down on Burbank's 7 yard line. On the second down the ball was advanced to Burbank's 2 yard line. A play thru center and one off right tackle failed to make the remaining two yards for the Owls and the ball went over to the Bulldogs on their own two yard line. Burbank kicked to their 48 yard line. A fake pass was attempted by the Owls but the ball was fumbled and Burbank recovered on Hondo's 47 yard line. Three passes were attempted by the Bulldogs and the third one was completed, advancing them to Hondo's 37 yard line for a first down. Two incomplete passes, a play thru center, and then another incomplete pass gave the ball back to the Owls on their own 37 yard line. On the first down Leinweber quick kicked to Burbank's 16 yard line. On the first down Dawson attempted a pass but it was incomplete. Rohmer went around left end to Burbank's 23 yard line where he was stopped by Embrey. On the fourth down the Bulldogs kicked to their 46 yard line. Three more plays were executed by the Hondo team, said plays bringing no yardage, then the pistol sounded, ending the game with a final score of 21-0 in favor of the Hondo Owls.

UVALDE VS. HONDO ON BARRY FIELD

Another grudge battle looms on Barry Field next Friday night when the Hondo Owls meet the Uvalde Coyotes at 8 P. M. This clash will be a non-district game and once more will settle the Hondo-Uvalde rivalry with a battle that promises to be one of the hardest fought of the season. Both the Owls and Coyotes have tasted defeat twice this season but were both victorious last Friday for their initial victories. The Coyotes will probably try to remove that eight year jinx which has caused them to lose the last four games played on the Owls' home field. The Coyotes are well-balanced this year and should be plenty tough for the Owls. The Owls, fresh from victory, are out to cover that 6-0 defeat handed them by the Coyotes last year. The Owls' offensive and defensive showed a great improvement last Friday night but the Owls had better try to prevent the numerous penalties which cost the Owls about twenty points Friday night and defeat in the Del Rio game.

Rio game.

This battle will be the fifth game to be played on the local field and also the last non-district game of the Owls' 1938 schedule.

UNDER THE FLOODLIGHTS.

The beaming faces of Hondo fans must have thrown Eastern scientists into some confusion last Friday night . . . that reflected glory over Hondo-way was probably mistaken for the millennium or, more puzzling, the sun rising in the West . . . Factors contributing to the strange phenomenon were . . . the OWLS' 21-0 victory, the first for the season . . . that pretty Seco school marm, DOROTHY HARPER, escorted by EDGAR MECHLER . . . the chic chapeaux of the three HOLLOWAY sisters, LUCILLE Holloway, LOTTIE Maw of Boston, Mass., and INA Mansell of St. Louis, Mo. . . EMMETT KOLLMAN, bribing the press with a cigarette to get his name in the paper . . . RUTH JENNINGS, bobbing up and down after each play like a jumping-jack . . . the yeoman service of DEPUTY DAWSON when a riot squad would have been more appropriate on the east bleachers . . . chivalric R. J. REILLY giving his coat to his wife who had a chill . . . CLINTON GRELL slapping his own face when he fumbled the ball . . . high school teacher LUCILLE JOHNSON all dated up with her pa, come all the way from San Marcos . . . the portrait hat of black velvet worn by the mama of that show-stealer, BEVERLY SCHWEERS . . . that interloper-looking fellow and his end-men, rigged out in huge orange bow-ties and cummerbunds, obviously Burbank fans . . . REGINA and JIM BAILEY, with Regina in riding togs studying the program . . . ALFRED BREITEN's baby boy getting early training as a future fan . . . he always cried out at the right moment . . . we might say MRS. G. R. SMARTT, if we knew it was Mrs. SMARTT and not her sister . . . DR. WALTER B. MEYER and GEORGE NEWSOM giving artists—if there were any present—some new postures to study as they leaned over the fence . . . that Russian looking black hat worn by WILMA SADLER . . . and HENRY SCHUEHLE rocking that Burbank bulldog "runkum byes little puppela" and then none too gently throwing him for a loss.

And speaking of phenomena . . . the Owls taught those Burbankers a new kind of horticulture . . . when they planted three "touchdown-dillies" in the Burbank garden.

Need we mention what's on hand tonight? Just you be there! Uvalde is!

FOR THE PRESERVATION OF WILD LIFE

Mr. J. W. Chapman, State Manager of the Texas Wildlife Federation, Inc., of Texas, was in Hondo Wednesday and conferred at a luncheon with a number of ranchmen and sport lovers on the plans of the Federation for preserving the rapidly vanishing wild life of the state.

The Federation is an organization of Texas sportsmen, land owners, business and professional men designed to achieve this purpose. It is supported through private subscriptions and, among other things, has for its purpose:

First, the repeal of 545 contradictory and conflicting game and fish laws and the enactment of one law that we can understand.

Second, to provide for adequate enforcement of the law.

Third, to secure the funds for continued research that we may know how to restore our remaining species of both game and fish; to provide an adequate county fund for restoration work in each County; to provide for a Marine Laboratory for marine research.

Fourth, to promote an educational program that our people may learn of the economic and social value of our wildlife and be inspired to assist in carrying through a program of restoration.

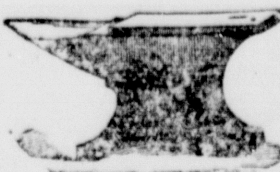

The State is divided into 21 Districts. There are three types of Memberships: Advisory Memberships at $100.00 annually; Business Membership at $25.00 annually; and Sustaining Membership at $10.00 annually.

The Advisory, Business and Sustaining members in a county annually elect a County Chairman. The County Chairman in each District elect a District Chairman. The 21 District Chairmen constitute the Board of Directors of the Federation.

The Federation has been incorporated; temporary directors and officers have been selected to be replaced as Districts are organized and District Chairmen are elected. Three Districts have organized and others are being organized as rapidly as possible. Thirty-one of the leading business and professional men of the State have purchased Advisory Memberships at $100 annually and several hundred sportsmen have purchased Sustaining Memberships. An educational program through regional conventions has been started.

Those contacted by Mr. Chapman were so impressed with the purpose and plan of the Federation that they invited him, and he has accepted the invitation, to return to Hondo on Thursday, November 3rd, and speak in the district courtroom at 7:30 P. M., in explanation of the work being undertaken.

TAMMANY HALL

By Clayton Rand

The words "Tammany Hall" were once anathema to rural Democrats. Whether justified or not, the name carried the thought of political corruption and political patronage.

Relentlessly and insidiously, however, the Tammany Hall idea has covered the whole country.

The evil spirit of graft and ward-heel politics has spread until it blights the integrity and patriotism of every community from the federal capital to the remotest hamlet.

Politics has long been rotten in spots, but there has always been a towering, guiding statesmanship leading toward the light to take some of the shame out of it. "Of course, politics is crooked," men say now, and let it pass with that. There are even those who boast of it.

MUENNINKS CELEBRATE SILVER ANNIVERSARY.

Twenty-five years ago on Oct. 16, Mr. J. E. "Johnny" Muennink and Miss Mary Mummie were joined together in holy matrimony. Last Saturday evening, Oct. 15, at six o'clock a deluge of automobiles filled their front yard and some seventy relatives and friends surprised the happy couple as they watered their front yard. The excited young son, J. E., could only say to the first uninvited guest to approach him, "What are you doing here?" Marion, the young man of the family, had lingered long with his milking to "stall off" supper lest he be forced "to let the cat out of the bag".

The visitors greeted their dumb-founded hosts by singing one of the best old hymns, "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love". Rev. Robert Paine of the New Fountain Methodist Church led the group in a short prayer of thanksgiving. All formalities being complete the men improvised a long table from barrels and boards so that the women might spread the bountiful supper of barbecued lamb, chicken, potato and fruit salads, cole slaw, cake and tea. Again Rev. Paine asked a blessing. A beautiful white iced cake trimmed with pink rosebuds and silver letters reading "Silver Anniversary" had been prepared by Mrs. Irene Mummie Krause and was set before the honored couple. Joe Paine of San Antonio and New Fountain presented Mr. and Mrs. Muennink with a handsomely arranged vase of chrysanthemums in variegated sizes and colors.

The group was called before the front steps, and Rev. Paine talked briefly of family love. Master J. E. presented his father and mother with a chest of silver, the gift of the relatives present. The chest of smoothly rubbed wood was tied with silver ribbons and across the top lay a corsage of white chrysanthemums and carnations. Johnny and Mary each spoke a few words of deep appreciation for the beautiful gifts and joyous occasion given in their honor. It was late in the evening when the last guest had said, "May you have twenty-five more".

FOHN-HAGAN.

Mr. Clarence Fohn of Hondo and Mrs. Jessie Mae Hagan of San Antonio were united in marriage at 7:30 o'clock, Saturday evening, October 15, 1938, in San Antonio, with a minister of the Church of Christ officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of close friends of the couple. The bride wore a black velvet dress with hat and bag also of black velvet, and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of a friend in San Antonio. Mr. and Mrs. Fohn are now at home in an apartment in the Aug. Schroeder residence. Mr. Fohn is owner of the Favorite Cafe package store. He has a large number of relatives and friends with whom this paper joins in extending best wishes to the newly married pair.

MISS KNOPP JOINS CHOIR.

St. Charles, Mo.—Miss Evelyn Knopp of Hondo, Texas, will sing in the Lindenwood College choir throughout the coming year. This choir is vested, and its presence gives a churchy background for the Sunday night vesper services each week in Roemer Auditorium. There are 50 voices, under Miss Doris Gieselman, of Lindenwood's music faculty.

Besides vesper services, the student choir will take part in Lindenwood's annual celebration of Founders' Day, Thursday, October 27, in a program at 11 A. M., at which an address will be made by Mrs. Hiram C. Houghton, Director for Iowa General Federation of Women's Clubs, on the topic, "The Challenge of a New Day". This will be Lindenwood's 112th anniversary and will mark the beginning of the twenty-fifth year of Dr. John Lincoln Roemer as president of the college. At this time the choir will sing the "Gloria" from Twelfth Mass by Mozart.

The members will enter, vested, with a processional hymn, and after the program, following a traditional custom, the recessional will be Lindenwood's hymn, "School of Our Mothers".

Miss Knopp is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Knopp of Hondo and a freshman at the college.

THESE LOVELY THINGS

The things that we cannot touch with the hand,
Are the things we cherish long;
The peace that a quiet evening brings,
And the strains of a lovely song;

A star, in the arms of a crescent moon;
And the silence of the night;
The quivering tints of an early morn,
And the scent of a rose, dew bright;

The tender gleam in the love-lit eyes,
And the sheen of a maiden's hair—
The things that we cannot touch with the hand,
Are the things beyond compare.

Amending The Wagner Act.

From many sides comes evidence of the need for amending the Wagner Labor Relations Act at the next session of Congress and straightening out the tangle of employer-employee relations which the act and its confused administration has caused.

In one day's newspaper came the demand of the head of the Metal Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor for a change in the law.

"Both the law and the personnel (of the Board) must be changed", said John P. Frey, one of the Federation's spokesmen.

And, at the same time the Federal Court of Appeals at Portland, Ore., was refusing a petition of the Labor Relations Board because of its queer ways of reaching conclusions.

The Court had remarked that the Board had relied for its conclusions on a "novel method" of procedure consisting of "statements made by dissatisfied employees (which were) quoted to support some of the findings of the board, although, in specific instances, this evidence was modified or eliminated by admissions on cross examination. On the other hand, testimony by company officials which disputed the charges, even where apparently corroborated, was variably disregarded wherever there was a conflict in evidence".

That type of law and that type of Board will never make for security in employment relations.

There was a quickening of pulses in the Department of Agriculture the other day when press wires brought news to Washington that Farmer Otto Gray, of Stillwater, Oklahoma, had developed a breed of midget cows.

Here at last, it seemed to some AAA planners, was an answer to all their prayers. If Farmer Gray could breed bovines one-half the size of normal Jerseys, surely the idea could be extended to other farm products, they joyfully reasoned. "Why not midget cotton plants to eliminate the annoying surplus of cotton; half-sized hogs, cats of corn, potatoes and grains of wheat?" they asked themselves. Here, indeed, seemed the answer to the ever normal granary problem, without the red tape of referendums, marketing quotas, export subsidies and farm regimentation.

But lo! The cloud with the silver lining suddenly drenched their hopes with rain. Farmer Gray's midget cow only eats half as much hay and actually produces more milk than her full-sized competitors.

So now it seems that Farmer Gray is to be accused of nothing short of treason against the AAA, for just when the government's agriculture

AUSTIN, Oct. 18.—A definite loosening up of the rigid proration restrictions which have governed production of oil in Texas for several years was anticipated by observers here this week, as they awaited issue of the November proration order, following the longest and most experts were wrestling with the problem of making two-thirds of a crop grow where a full crop had grown before, this incorrigible non-cooperator points the way to still greater production with less effort.

Tsk, tsk, Farmer Gray, we are told by the theorists that Utopia is not in that direction!

If there is any burning of the midnight oil around CIO headquarters and the National Labor Relations Board in coming weeks, chances are those within will be brushing up on popular proverbs. To wit: "Experience is the best teacher and 'mighty oaks from little acorns grow'."

The cause of the whole thing is an election just held among waiters and other employees of the National Press Club on the question of whether the CIO should represent them as sole bargaining agent. It was a routine Labor Board election, with about 50 employees involved, but it has planted an acorn from which a mighty legislative oak may grow.

The Press Club is an organization exclusively for newspapermen and selected associate members. The associate membership includes a large percentage of Congressmen, and although the Congressmen passed the National Labor Relations Act and the newspapermen writes almost daily stories about it, the recent election was their first personal experience with the law and its operations. And that experience proved a bitter teacher.

Briefly, the experience revealed that although CIO organizers were permitted to electioneer on the sidelines, and even coerce the wives of employees, members of the Club (the employers) were forbidden by the labor act and the Labor Board to even answer questions about the election when asked by the confused workers. That would have been "coercion"!

So the newspapermen in Washington, to whom the Labor Board looks for help in forming public opinion in support of the Board, have a new and intimate insight into the problem that has beset employers for more than three years. The Capital's "liberals" are beginning to think that it was an ill-advised election, which incidentally, resulted in a rejection of the CIO in favor of individual bargaining.

hectic proration hearing in many months, held last Saturday. Insiders predicted the order, which may be issued before this report is in print, would do away with the Saturday and Sunday shutdowns entirely, and authorize a daily average production slightly under the Bureau of Mines estimate for November, which was 1,371,000 barrels daily.

East-West Texas Battle

Questions by Chairman Ernest Thompson asked as the battle raged between East Texas operators, who favor more liberal allowables, and West and North Texans, who favor continued low allowables, indicated that the Chairman may have become convinced the stringent proration policy of the past has failed to do what it was intended to do, and a long-range policy of gradually loosening up restrictions may follow. Lon Smith, and Jerry Sadler, the latter to take office as Commissioner January 1, succeeding C. V. Terrell, are known to favor more liberal allowables, and close friends of Thompson believe he now leans to that view.

Testimony at the hearing indicated Texas has lost substantial oil markets to other states, and to foreign oil, by cutting down its production. The policy has been nullified by other states, many with little or no regulation, stepping up production of oil as Texas has cut down. Oil from Venezuela has poured in, and confiscated oil, produced from American and British properties seized without payment by the Mexican government, has proved the straw that broke the camel's back, pouring into Houston at cut prices.

Market Breaks.

The heavy shipments of Mexican oil, together with published hints from Governor Nominee W. Lee O'Daniel that he might seek a higher tax on oil to finance his pension program, broke the market and brought a 25 cent cut in all fields last week.
Operators in the flush East Texas field, having seen that rigid proration has neither protected their markets nor their prices, and has resulted in "dumping" of foreign oil on American markets, were loud in their demands for relief. The operators of marginal and stripped wells in North and West Texas still are demanding protection, but their opponents claim there is no economic justification for longer protecting what they call un-economic production from these small wells, at the expense of the huge East and South Texas oil reservoirs.

Life Commissioner Praised.

High tribute to the service of Judge R. L. Daniel, of Victoria, serving his second term as Life Insurance Commissioner of Texas, was paid last week by President Harry R. Wilson, of the American Life Convention at their Chicago convention. Terming Daniel "one of the ablest commissioners in the country, with a record unparalleled in the history of the insurance business", Wilson said:
"He has been Insurance Commissioner of Texas twice and served with distinction both times. His good, hard common sense and his ability to say forcibly and clearly any thought in his mind, together with his capacity for hard work, has caused him to be placed on some of the most important committees of the Association of Insurance Commissioners and to be regarded as one of the ablest commissioners in the country. During the trying times of the depression he never lost his head and with unflin-ing wisdom guided the Texas companies through that troublesome era. He brought 39 chartered Texas legal reserve life companies under his supervision through the depression without loss of a single one—a record unparalleled in the history of the insurance business".

Friends of Daniel, including leading insurance executives, are vigorously seeking his reappointment as Life Insurance Commissioner by Governor Nominee W. Lee O'Daniel.
Judge Daniel's term expires next January.

State Advertising Program

Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul, who this week is serving his 21st term as Governor, while Gov. Allred hunted eik in Colorado and addressed a Church of Christ convention, will be an unpaid lobbyist at the January session, sponsoring again constitutional amendment to permit the State to conduct an advertising campaign for industrial development and tourist business. Woodul pushed his amendment through the last regular session in the Senate, but it died in the House. He believes the success of other advertising states guarantees a large share of prosperity for Texas if the voters will authorize expenditure of State funds to tell the story of the Lone Star State to the rest of the nation.

Watch Farm Battle.

Politicians here are watching carefully the battle between Texas Agriculture Commissioner J. E. Mc-Donald and backers of the Federal crop control program in Texas.
Farmers generally are dissatisfied with the Federal program, according to reports here, and McDonald, long an advocate of the domestic allotment plan, instead of curtailed production, has been telling his story to large groups of cotton raisers throughout Texas. The possibility that McDonald may have future political ambitions for a higher office is not being overlooked.

Mrs. F. H. Schweers returned Tuesday from Houston where she had spent several days and also attended the wedding of her son, Roy, and Miss Eunice Pearl Ruff, which took place Monday.

SCHWEERS-RUFF.

Miss Eunice Pearl Ruff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Ruff, became the bride of Roy J. Schweers of San Antonio, son of Mrs. F. H. Schweers of Hondo, at a ceremony which took place at 7 o'clock Monday morning at Baptist Temple, with Rev. T. C. Jester reading the ritual. Miss Alice Irene Dixon at the piano gave the accompaniment for C. J. Robinson, who sang "I Love You Truly", and also played "At Dawning" while the candles were lighted and a muted theme of "Liebestraum" during the ceremony. Baskets, filled with shaggy white chrysanthemums, were outlined against a banking of ferns and palms, clustered about floor standards with burning white tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin princess model with a long circular train. Her finger-tip veil of illusion depended from a cluster of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies. The matron of honor, Mrs. King C. Leonard of Tulsa, Okla., and the bridesmaids, Miss Virginia Cooper of Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. M. A. Schweers and Miss Marian Tigner, were in royal blue velvet gowns with full skirts and worn with fitted jackets. They carried bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums and autumn leaves.

Mrs. Ruff, mother of the bride, was gowned in black crepe trimmed in deep blue, and Mrs. Schweers, mother of the groom, wore black sheer. Both wore pink carnation corsages.

M. A. Schweers served as best man, and groomsmen were Ed. Washmon of San Antonio and Floyd Mechlur.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for members of the family at the home of the bride's parents.

On their return from a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Schweers will be at home at 1532 North Alamo, San Antonio. The bride is traveling in a costume of teal blue crepe with which she wears black accessories. (Houston Chronicle.)

The bridegroom is a former Hondo boy and a graduate of Hondo High School. He has a host of friends who congratulate him on his marriage and extend best wishes to him and his bride for a happy future.

The marriage of Miss Florence Greil and Clarence Haass is taking place in San Antonio this evening (Thursday) as we go to press. An extended account of the wedding will appear next week.

Following some excessively hot weather for October, a dry norther struck this section early Wednesday night and there was a considerable drop in temperature. The hoped-for rain, however, failed to materialize.

Mrs. L. J. Brucks entertained the Thursday Bridge Club last week. High score prize went to Mrs. O. B. Taylor and second went to Mrs. H. J. Meyer. Refreshments of chicken salad, wafers, custard pie and iced tea were served to the following: Mesdames R. J. Noonan, W. H. Smith, O. H. Miller, J. M. Finger, L. E. Heath, H. J. Meyer, O. B. Taylor, B. R. Eichenroht, E. J. Leinweber and L. J. Brucks.

The Ladies Bridge Club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Robert Kollman as hostess. Prizes were awarded Mrs. O. B. Taylor for high; Mrs. J. M. Finger for second, and Mrs. Roy Pfeil for guest high. Chicken salad, saltines, cookies and iced tea were served at the end of the games. The personnel included Mesdames L. J. Brucks, Ed. Cameron, J. M. Finger, O. B. Taylor, L. E. Heath, A. L. Janszen, Roy Pfeil and R. C. Rath.

NEW FOUNTAIN WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Mrs. Fritz Stiegler was hostess to thirteen members and four guests at the recent meeting of the New Fountain Missionary Society. Mrs. Paine was leader of the program. "Call to Worship" was given by the leader; a missionary in Africa writes, "Because the light which is Christ himself is dispelling old superstitions and fears the girls and women of Africa hold out-stretched arms to the Christian Church, begging for an opportunity to learn how to walk in the light".

It is when we realize the needs of those about us, and in other lands, that we realize we are not on earth to play, to dream, to drift, but rather we are here to do hard work and lift the loads of others.

After the message from a missionary was read, the hymn "The Morning Light is Breaking" was sung. The leader read the following scripture: Math. 21:28-32:31-46. The theme song of the scripture reading was sung. "Dare to be Brave, Dare to be True". Mrs. Frank Muennink gave "Meditation" from the World Outlook; which was followed by soft music by Mrs. H. C. Muennink and a period of silent meditation. The topic, "Mission Education", was given by the following speakers: Mrs. Robt. Ruff, Mrs. Clinton Wiemers, Mrs. Theo. Wiemers, Mrs. H. C. Muennink and Mrs. Jacob Schweers, in response to the talks. Mrs. Theo. Wiemers gave the closing prayer. A short business session followed. A delicious plate lunch and punch were served.

HUNDREDS URGE NEED FOR TRANSVERSAL ROAD.

Delegates from all towns and communities between Pleasanton on the south and Bandera on the north attended an important road meeting at Potet Wednesday night of this week when petitions bearing the names of several thousand citizens were assembled ready for presentation to the state highway commission in an effort to get designation as a state highway.

The proposed road leads off from Highway 66 at Pleasanton, intersects Highway 81 at Lytle, crosses through Medina Valley via LaCoste to an intersection with Highway 90 at Castroville and on up Medina River through the hills and on to the lake and to Bandera. The road would connect with the highway out of San Antonio. Such a road would perhaps serve more farmers than any other road in the country and at the same time would provide a needed transversal road that will relieve the congestion of traffic in the city of San Antonio and open a way for traffic from the south to the west.

Delegates attending the meeting last night were enthusiastic over the plans for such a road and regarded the movement as one of the most important regional matters ever undertaken in this area. Hundreds and thousands of citizens of Texas would make use of this road after its construction. Farmers in the congested areas of the irrigation districts of Bexar, Medina and Atascosa counties would make use of the road in getting their farm products to market.

Lytle was represented at the meeting by a number of citizens and each one attending was enthusiastic over the prospects for getting immediate action on the matter. Delegations from Rio Medina, Medina Lake, LaCoste and Castroville were equally as enthusiastic and Potet and Pleasanton are leaving nothing undone that will aid in procuring the road. The citizens of Potet extended a very cordial welcome to the visiting delegations.

USING UP THE FEED CROP.

By T. C. Richardson, Secretary Breeder-Feeder Association

Someone has described a well-managed industry as a sort of perpetual motion, in which the processes of production are continuous throughout the year. The factory which runs only a few months and stops its machinery, closes its doors, and lays off its labor for weeks or months at a time has to make higher profits for its operating time or go out of business. The farm which loaf between crop seasons is in the same boat of inefficiency.

With the exception of the subtropical portions of the Southwest, where marketable crops may be harvested the year round, there is only one way of providing profitable use for the available farm labor and keeping the farm factory running twelve months in the year, and that is by keeping livestock and poultry in connection with crop production. Livestock and poultry grow while the farmer sleeps, and use much that would be lost without them, while crops await the season. The only perpetual motion farm therefore is a balanced farm, where plants and animals work together in their natural relation, each supporting the other.

With a surplus of feed on hand above normal needs, a good many Southwestern farmers this year will have to decide the best use to make of it. There are plenty of pitfalls for anyone who undertakes a new enterprise without previous experience, and this is particularly true in "going into" the livestock or poultry business on a commercial scale right out of a cotton patch.

Notice that we said "going into", not "growing into" the business, for there is a vast difference. We Americans like to do things in a big way, and the temptation is great to start with a big herd of dairy cows, a large flock of sheep, a carload of beef cattle or hogs. Those who go in with a bang too often go out the same way.

Rhythm Makers Organize

A special meeting of the Rhythm Makers of St. Louis High School was called September 21, to elect officers for the school term, with the following results: President, Anna Frances Lieber; Vice-President, Winfred Naegelin; Treasurer, Clifton Schott; Secretary, Tondre Jack Wernette; Reporter, Vivian Schott. The music pupils decided at an earlier date to have new uniforms this school term, and instantly sent their order to a company. These natty uniforms of green and tan, which included a cape and cap, arrived last week. The pupils are enraptured with the beauty of their new uniforms.

The feminine coterie of musicians will wear white dresses and the green and tan uniforms, while the masculine members will be attired in white trousers and the above mentioned uniforms whenever they play at a public performance.

A beautiful mahogany filing cabinet, in which to keep sheet music, has been purchased and placed into the music room.

QUIHI NOTES.

And Jacob said unto them, my brethren, whence be ye? And they said, Of Haran are we. And he said unto them, Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him—Is he well?—They said, He is well. Gen. 29:4-6.

"And while the porker was ravenously crunching acorns under an oak-tree, half a dozen in his mouth and devouring another dozen with his eyes, the old oak remarked, 'I'm just wondering why you don't send a grateful look up to me once in a while, while munching my acorns.' The ground-pinned eyes squinted upward for a moment, and gruffly the porker replied, 'I'd surely do that, if I'd known that you had dropped those acorns for me.' Application? Wonder how many take it just for granted that water and air, sunshine and rain, all the ingredients for their many meals, the materials for clothing, housing and protection, for brain and brawn, just incidentally are spread out before them with the silent, automatic invitation, 'Come and get it? The many thousand items for our livelihood and progress just dropping down from somewhere? No acknowledgment, no grateful look upward, no consciousness of a kind and gracious God Who has made and prepared it for me, positively for me? Hasn't that porker really many kins-folks in the more intelligent, dignified and exalted human race? Jacob did not acknowledge words. He has vowed a 'house of God', wherein to worship that kind God. He has promised the 'tenth' of all his future income for that God. More than Christians give ordinarily, though receiving the same abundant share from God as he. And even those are still harping on, and hankering for Old Testament ordinances, are carefully avoiding this one item, the giving of the tenth of their income to the Lord for charity, benevolence and the up-building of His kingdom by missionary efforts. Too high a percentage? Does He deserve less? How much? The many nickles seems to tell the story, as do the salaries His servants receive in ever so many instances. Ninety per cent of his income for himself, ten per cent to the Lord. True proportions? What is it in your case? An awkward chapter, that chapter of giving unto the Lord. Hats off to this lonely wanderer and his offspring. It was not to their loss. They still own the wealth of the nations. His harmony with the Lord fairly patched up, Jacob resumes his journey. Come what may, he is prepared. He is marching on the winning side, though God's own are not spared the aches and battle scars. They have His healing remedy and the prospect of ultimate victory. The end of the trail is near. Perhaps he had no map or road-guide to lead him, no information bureau to inquire at, but he did, as we do in strange territory, inquire at the next house. The change in surroundings, dress and custom and language helped in the orientation. From his mother's side, he most likely had acquired the language spoken there. Mothers as well as fathers often forget that duty of conveying what they know to their children. The mind is elastic and vital enough for more than one language. And it's certainly no disgrace to handle several of them. In younger days it's done almost playfully; at school and college the attempt of learning a new language causes many a headache and failure and a silent charge against the one who was remiss in his or her duty being the key to a wider horizon and a better acquaintance with different people and their culture. It helps toward international understanding. It even creates a mind habit and willingness in that direction. The Jews are still the best linguists who learn a foreign language faster than others, and they still retain their home-idiom, the Hebrew or at least the 'Yiddish' that makes the Jew conversant with Jew, no matter from what country he hails. This explains the Jewish solidarity all over the world, especially in times of tribulation and persecution and exile. Jacob had the immediate benefit right then and there. And how the joy leaps from the heart to his mouth. Language here again is an invisible bond of union, joining man and his interests in one common unit. Jews, Americans, French, Germans, etc. when they meet in a strange country and hear familiar sounds. What will Jacob find?

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Balzen are the happy recipients of a baby-boy and many faces are smiling with them. It's a blessing from the Lord. Though the vacation season is practically over, a few still have time and opportunity to make up for what the real season would not permit. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Lindeburg who, with much deliberation and extensive packing, just went off, the trip taking them over to Louisiana and its most attractive city, New Orleans, also to Baton Rouge to view the new capitol, thence to various sections in Arkansas, including Little Rock among other points touched. They report a very enjoyable tour.

The premises of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mumme were invaded by the fire demon lately. Fortunately, the home was spared and the main damage done only to hay stacks, thanks to the timely help of the fire department.

May we issue a last call as a reminder for our Community Social on Saturday the 22nd? You will enjoy every feature, especially the hits and the skits of the program that will serve as a fine week-end bracer for young and old. The invitation goes to all.

Announcements for October the 23rd: German service at New Fountain at 10 A. M. No Sunday school. The English evening service at 7:30. Come, let us worship the Lord.
